In accordance with the regulations of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China, all foreigners entering China on business purpose need to present an official invitation letter from an authorised Chinese organisation when applying for a business visa.

The organisers will coordinate and submit the applicant's details to the Chinese authorities, after which the invitation letter will then be sent electronically to the applicant. The embassy may require the original. If the original is required, an additional postage fee will be charged.

Upon receipt of the invitation letter, the applicant is required to apply for an entry visa from the Chinese Embassy/Consulate by presenting his/her passport and attaching a copy of the passport, a recent photograph and a completed visa application form.

You may also apply for a tourist visa for entry into China, which means you do not need to obtain an invitation letter. Please contact your local visa office of the Chinese Embassy/Consulate for the tourist visa procedure.

Note:

1. Please provide a copy of the first page of your passport.
2. Passport must be valid for at least SIX MONTHS from the intended date of entry into China.
3. Please make the necessary copies of this form for each applicant.
4. For clarity, please type or print.
5. There is no charge for the invitation letters for this edition.
6. Even if there is an invitation letter, we are not responsible and can't guarantee that you will be able to get a visa from your local Chinese consulate.
